DIRECTOR'S NOTE

This list provides books to the amount of $500, assuming that an average discount of one third will be secured, except in case of a few books marked net and specially allowed for. Wherever there is opportunity for choice, editions have been carefully selected. Considerations of economy have debarred mention of many excellent editions, but have not induced the recommendation of poor print, paper or editing. An occasional note gives information about more expensive editions or fuller treatises which would be desirable could they be afforded, but which can not be substituted without exceeding the $500 limit or excluding something else. Where alternatives are suggested in the main list, as in case of cyclopedias, translations of Homer, etc. provision has been made for buying the more expensive work, but not both. When more than one edition is mentioned, the first is the one reckoned. Amounts in headings represent list prices and do not include alternatives.

Certain series of miscellaneous standard literature, which appear frequently on the list and are sometimes brought into comparison, perhaps need brief description. The volumes of the Riverside literature series (Houghton) are 12mos printed in clear, medium size type on good opaque paper and bound in brown linen. They are also bound in paper and boards, but only the cloth binding is quoted on this list. The Riverside school library (Houghton) volumes are generally printed from the same plates as the Riverside literature series, on somewhat finer paper and bound in red half leather. The World's classics (Putnam) are less expensive reissues of the well known Knickerbocker nuggets. The type, though not large, is clear, the page well spaced, and the paper good. They are neatly bound small 16mos. The Elia series (Putnam) are larger 16mos, admirable in type and paper, with gilt top and rough edges. These series, with Longmans' English classics, Sibley & Ducker's Students series of English classics, Macmillan's School editions, and others of recognized value, may be depended on as evenly good. To know one is to be assured of the quality of all. Unfortunately this is not always true of special editions and series, the uniformity sometimes consisting only in binding and price. Of the Stratford edition of Irving certain volumes are good while others are poor. Crowell's Waldorf library, uncommonly satisfactory for the price in many instances, is very unequal and sometimes decidedly inferior. It has been recommended in this list only after examination of the individual volume.

Books marked a aggregate $200. If to these the books marked b are added, the amount will reach $300. This selection merely suggests probable first needs in case it is impracticable to buy all on the list, but it does not imply that these books are superior in quality. It is of course impossible to make a limited list which shall perfectly meet diverse conditions and needs. A German dictionary or an advanced chemistry may be almost useless in one school and absolutely necessary in another. Variations must be made to suit requirements of special courses and interests of the community. The resources of a school must also be considered. It is hoped that these briefer selections will meet average requirements fairly well and that the full list will furnish suggestions for special wants.

Literature

Individual authors

- Bryant, W: C. Poetical works. Appleton $1.50. (Household ed.) 811
- Holmes, O. W. Poetical works. Houghton $2 (Cambridge ed.); $1 (Cabinet ed.) 811
- aLongfellow, H: W. Complete poetical works. Houghton $2 (Cambridge ed.); $1 (Cabinet ed.) 811
- aLowell, J. R. Poetical works. Houghton $2 (Cambridge ed.); $1 (Cabinet ed.) 811
- aWhittier, J: G. Complete poetical works. Houghton $2 (Cambridge ed.); $1 (Cabinet ed.) 811

The Cambridge, Cabinet, and Household editions of Holmes, Longfellow, Lowell, and Whittier are the only complete one volume editions of these poets. The Cambridge editions, admirable in type, paper, binding and editing, have the latest revisions and biographic sketches. The new Cabinet editions are in excellent but rather small type, printed on thinner paper, without biographies or notes, but complete except that in some cases discarded matter printed in the appendix in Cambridge editions is omitted. They are remarkably good cheap editions, and while less desirable than the Cambridge, are from newer plates than and are preferable to some volumes in the Household edition, $1.50.

American essays and miscellany ($13)

- bCurtis, G: W: From the Easy chair. Harper $1. 814
- aEmerson, R. W. Essays; 1st and 2d series. Houghton $1. (Cambridge classics) 814
- Representative men, with Nature, lectures and addresses. 2v. in 1. Houghton $1. (Cambridge classics) 814
- bLowell, J. R. My study windows. Houghton $2. 814
- Replier, Agnes. Points of view. Houghton $1.25. 814
- aHolmes, O. W. Autocrat of the breakfast table. Houghton 50c net (Riverside lit. ser. no. 81); 60c net (Riversidesch. lib.); $1.50 (Riverside ed.) 817
- Irving, Washington. Alhambra, ed. by W: L. Phelps Putnam $1. (Students' ed.) 817
- — Crowell 60c. (Astor lib.) 817
- b— Knickerbocker. Putnam $1.25. (Stratford ed.) 817
- a— Sketch book. Putnam $1.25. (Stratford ed.) 817
- — ed. by W: L. Phelps. Putnam $1. (Students' ed.) 817

G. P. Putnam's Sons publish several editions of Irving of very unequal merit. The special volumes issued in the Students' ed. are printed from new plates and are excellent. The Hudson ed. complete at $1.50 each and the Stratford ed. of Knickerbocker and the Sketch book, $1.25 each, may be recommended for library use.

- b*Warner, C. D. My summer in a garden. Houghton $1. (River- Literature side Aldine ser.) 817

Labberton, R. H. New historical atlas and general history. Silver $2 net. 911
Rand, McNally & Co. pub. New imperial atlas of the world. $2.50. 912

Outside measure $14\frac{1}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in. 38 double page, 63 single page maps ; 18 single page plans of cities ; 95 insets ; map of Luzon and South African war map. Marginal index. Same plates as in their Universal atlas, \$5, without descriptive text.

If a large atlas is desired we recommend Rand, McNally & Co.'s Indexed atlas of the world, 2v. \$18.50, as at present the most satisfactory and complete for America. Outside measure $22 \times 15\frac{1}{2}$ in. 65 double page, 36 single page maps ; 15 double page, 10 single page plans of cities ; 120 small maps, insets, etc. Attention is also called to the Times atlas 34s. Outside measure $16\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in. 196 maps. These maps are much better executed than the American maps, but the United States is inadequately represented. Bartholomew's World at home atlas, Nelson \$8, $14\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{3}{4}$ in., 61 maps, is also better executed than the Rand, McNally & Co. atlases, but gives fewer details than the Times atlas. It has 15 United States maps. W. & A. K. Johnston's World-wide atlas, 7s 6d, $12\frac{1}{2} \times 10$ in. with well engraved maps, treats the western continent meagerly but is a Travel useful supplement to Rand, McNally & Co.'s Imperial atlas, specially for insets of important localities in detail and for fuller maps of Asia and Africa. The Century atlas is at present sold by H. E. Hooper, half Russia \$7.50. It represents the United States well and is better executed than the Rand, McNally & Co. maps, though inferior to the Times atlas. At the above price it is most desirable, but this is announced as a temporary offer, to lapse when the supply printed to complete sets of subscribers to the original Century dictionary is exhausted.

REGENTS COURSES IN LITERATURE

A SELECTION OF DESIRABLE EDITIONS OF BOOKS REQUIRED IN ENGLISH AND AMERICAN, GERMAN, FRENCH AND SPANISH LITERATURE

In the following lists complete editions for library use stand first, followed by selections and editions for school use, arranged under each title in order of cost. Economy, type, paper and editing have been important considerations in selection. The list however does not profess to include all desirable editions, for so many are now published that a complete list, unless very fully annotated, would probably be more confusing than helpful. A wider selection is offered by trade catalogues, which publishers will gladly supply. All of the better series are represented in the list, though none is included complete. Under Shakspeare exception has been made, a full statement of good editions specially prepared for schools being attempted because of the value of variety of annotation and interpretation in class work. Wherever possible, cheap editions in paper, such as students can afford have been mentioned. Many of these are excellent though too perishable to be bought with public money for a library.

In German, French and Spanish literature there is much less opportunity for selection; in most cases all the desirable annotated editions are given, and occasionally an edition by no means satisfactory is included because no other was available. This is often the case with Spanish texts, and it is expected that old and unsatisfactory editions cited here will soon be superseded by American editions carefully edited and printed for school use.
